President's Message

The class of 1956 is now prepared to take its place in a bewildered and troubled world. We are the citizens of tomorrow, and very soon the fate of the world will rest on our shoulders. Our high school education has helped us to develop the intellectual traits needed for success in life. How we have made use of our schooling will determine our usefulness in civil and domestic matters.

The Senior Class wishes to thank parents, teachers, and friends, who have greatly assisted us during our four years in high school. Without this unselfish co-operation our graduation would not be possible.

Many of us have not yet made definite plans for the future. We sincerely hope, however, that the vocation we select will in some way make this world a better place in which to live. Again, we thank all who have shown kindness and consideration toward us.

Valedictory

Qui Agit Suus Optimus, Agit Bene--He who does his best does well.

Tonight, we, the Class of 1956, turn our thoughts to the future with humble pride. We have done our best, and shortly we will receive the supreme reward of our young lives, a high school diploma.

Our years in high school have been pleasant and carefree, but now we must think seriously. Our fine training in high school will exemplify itself, as we bravely do our best to solve our problems in a mature and practical way.

We now say farewell to our wonderful teachers and classmates. As we leave the portals of West Rutland High School for the final time, we look back on the lessons we have learned, and the moral principles which have been instilled in us. Confident that we face a promising future, we partially cast off the shackles of dependence, which bound us throughout our early years. Each of us has a new life before him. The foundation has been set, now we must complete the framework.

Regardless of what we attempt, we will feel that glow of satisfaction that goes with a job well done. If we do our best we shall succeed. Qui agit suus optimus, agit bene--He who does his best does well.

JOHN BROZA

Salutatory

It is with deepest pleasure that I welcome parents, teachers, and friends of the graduates to our Commencement Exercises.

After four years of guidance and supervision we must leave our Alma Mater. What walks of life shall we follow? Is success or failure our destiny? As we approach a life of individuality it is our sincere belief that we have been instilled with intelligence, fortitude, and understanding which, to a great measure, have aided our development.

Tonight, we wish to thank all those who have helped, advised and encouraged us. We are grateful to our teachers, always ready with a helping hand, and to our parents who always sought for us the best. Without them, there would be no sound foundation with which to face the world.

Again, may I say thank you, and welcome you to the Commencement Exercises of the Class of 1956.

Class History

'52-'53

In September, 1952, we entered the doors of the beautiful West Rutland High School. As a group of timid potential scholars, we believed we were fully prepared to meet any challenge that might confront us in the high school days ahead.

We were dubbed as "silly" freshmen and soon the upperclassmen gazed at us in the usual upstart manner as our superiors. We never managed to find the right class and were always being assigned separate seats in the study hall for giggling.

Soon we were formally initiated as West Rutland High School students by the sophomores, who officiated at the Freshman Reception. We were forced to dress in men's clothes, wrong side out, and were told to wear our hair in pigtails. Mary Costello and Valentine Jakubowski were outstanding performers in the show in the bran sack race. Val's knee has never been the same since.

In a few days our first class meeting was held under the direction of Miss Jean Bingham, class advisor. The following officers were chosen: President, Stanley Pietryka; Vice President, Priscilla Janas; and Secretary-Treasurer, Mary Costello.

Many of the girls joined the Home Economics Club. We enjoyed the usual festivities at picnics and parties sponsored by the Club during the year.

At football time, the class of 1956 was represented by Tom Harte, Skip Pietryka and Jim Yatsik who took part in their first interscholastic games.

Beatrice Elari, and Mary Mumford gave commendable performances in the annual Athletic play, "I'm A Family Crisis."

Winter brought the basketball season. John Broza, Tom Harte, Skip Pietryka, and Valentine Jakubowski from our class, played on the junior varsity team. It was the first time in several seasons that we failed to win the class "B" State championship.

Mary Costello and Mary Lou Zygo were elected from the class of '56 on the J. V. cheering squad.

That year the school band, under the direction of Mr. Napoleon Ianni, was organized. Taking part from our class were Suzan Fadden, Mary Costello, Martha Alexander, Beatrice Elari, and John Broza.

Our class, lean on athletic talent, had only two members, Stan Pietryka and Tom Harte, playing on the varsity baseball squad.

The end of our freshman year soon came to a close. Beatrice Elari and Mary Krysztofik represented our class in the prize speaking contest, under the direction of Mr. Robillard. They both gave outstanding performances. Bea's humorous monologue, "Edith Economics" won first prize.

A wonderful year had been spent at West Rutland High School and we were all looking forward to our summer vacation.

'53-'54

In September, we became Sophomores and sought revenge on a new crop of unsuspecting yearlings and freshman class. The torture committee for the Freshman Reception consisted of Beatrice Elari, Mary Krysztofik, Jody Jakubowski, Leona Wierzbicki, John Broza, Ed Dunlap, and Jim Yatsik.

At class elections we chose as President, Mary Krysztofik. Miss Bliss acted as class advisor.

Mr. Hinchey's call for footballmen was again answered by Tom Harte, Skip Pietryka, and Jim Yatsik, and the team played well during the seven game Marble Valley League season.

During our Christmas vacation, a joint concert of the band and Glee Club was held under the direction of Miss Bliss and Mr. Ianni. Students participating were Theresa Canavan, Beatrice Elari, Mary Krysztofik, Carol Grabowski, Dorothy Turner, Mary Costello, Leona Wierzbicki, Suzan Fadden, Mary Lou Zygo, Jody Jakubowski, John Broza, and Valentine Jakubowski.

Basketball was now our main interest and we all hoped to regain our title as class "B" champs. Skip Pietryka, Jim Yatsik, John Broza, and Tom Harte made the jayvee team, but again we failed to meet our goal.

The "Rah-Rah" girls were Mary Costello, Jody Jakubowski, Mary Lou Zygo, and Priscilla Janas. They looked real cute in their Green and Gold outfits.

Many of us gave a helping hand to make the Green and Gold News a successful publication. It was fun and taught us many things which would help us later in life.

Following the Easter vacation, baseball was the popular sport. Skip Pietryka and Tom Harte represented our class on the diamond.

The end of our sophomore year was soon at hand, and Mr. Robillard was again seeking talented students for the prize speaking contest. Mary Kryzstofik, Priscilla Janas, and John Broza were named from our class and all gave commendable performances.

Two years had passed rapidly. As we looked back and recalled the many good times, we realized the many things we had accomplished. We all looked forward to our junior year, determined to improve our scholastic standing, as we were two years older and two years wiser.

'54-'55

Before we knew it our summer vacation was over, and we returned for our Junior year.

With Mr. Robillard as our class advisor, we had our first meeting and selected the following officers: President, James Yatsik; Vice President, Mary Costello; Secretary, Beatrice Elari; and Treasurer, Nancy Chapman.

The time soon came for the girls to prove their cheering ability. Chosen from our class were Jody Jakubowski, Priscilla Janas, and Mary Mumford as substitute.

Representing the class of '56 on the football squad were Jimmy Yatsik, Bill Pecor, Tommy Harte and Skippy Pietryka.

Under the direction of Miss Margaret Bliss, the annual athletic play, "Listen To Lester" was presented. In the cast from our class were Mary Mumford, Beatrice Elari, Priscilla Janas, Mary Kryzstofik and John Broza.

The annual Christmas Concert was held in mid-December and was under the joint leadership of Mr. Napoleon Ianni, band director, and Miss Margaret Bliss, music teacher.

Band members who represented our class were Martha Alexander, John Broza, Nancy Chapman, Mary Costello, Beatrice Elari, Suzan Fadden, Mary Kryzstofik and Mary Mumford.

In the Glee Club from our class were Beatrice Elari, Mary Kryzstofik, Jody Jakubowski, Carol Grabowski, Mary Zygo, Leona Wierzbicki, Theresa Canavan and John Broza.

With the coming of Thanksgiving and the first fall of snow, the hardwoods of the West Side gym began to receive regular pounding by the W.R.H.S. basketball squad. Juniors on the squad included Tom Harte, Skip Pietryka and John Broza.

In May, the West Rutland Band performed in Manchester at the annual Music Festival. Majorettes led the musicians for the first time since the band was formed. Priscilla Janas represented our class in this group.

Later in the month, the band and Glee Club took part in the State Music Festival at Burlington. An excellent performance was presented.

The baseball season proved to be very successful for Mr. Hinchey and the West Siders won the State Class "B" championship by defeating Pittsford High School. Skippy Pietryka, our only diamond performer, alternated between first base and pitching.

In the annual Prize Speaking Contest, Mary Kryzstofik and John Broza gave outstanding performances. Broza won first prize with his presentation of the humorous selection "Bill Thay."

The Junior girls chose Mary Kryzstofik and Dorothy Turner as representatives to Girls' State. Representing West Side at Boys' State were John Broza, Skippy Pietryka and Eddy Dunlap.

After studying for the final examinations, everyone was ready for the well-deserved summer vacation and we thus completed our third year of high school.

'55-'56

Last September we returned for our final year at West Rutland High School. The day we had been waiting for had finally arrived. We had now reached the enviable pinnacle as seniors.

After adjusting to a normal schedule we held our class elections. Named as President was John Broza, Dorothy Turner Vice President, Valentine Jakubowski, Secretary and Theresa Canavan, Treasurer.

There were five seniors on the 1955 football squad. These included Ed Dunlap, Skippy Pietryka, Jim Yatsik, Bill Pecor and Tom Harte.

Representing our class on the Varsity Football cheering squad were Mary Mumford, Jody Jakubowski, Priscilla Janas and Nancy Chapman.

On November 17, the A.A. play "Faith, Hope and Flarity" was presented. Beatrice Elari, Mary Mumford, Priscilla Janas, Mary Kryzstofik and John Broza were members of the cast from our class.

As the Christmas season came upon us, preparations were made for the annual Christmas Concert.

Glee Club members from the Senior class were Beatrice Elari, Jody Jakubowski, Carol Grabowski, Mary Lou Zygo, Leona Wierzbicki, Theresa Canavan, Nancy Chapman and John Broza. The Glee Club was directed by Miss Margaret Bliss.

Senior members of the band this year were Martha Alexander, John Broza, Nancy Chapman, Beatrice Elari, Suzan Fadden, Mary Kryzstofik, Mary Mumford and Mary Costello.

Took toll of the Mid-Year examination averages, John Broza was named Valedictorian and Beatrice Elari, Salutatorian.

High honors were John Broza, Beatrice Elari and Mary Kryzstofik. Skippy Pietryka also earned honors.

Class Prophecy

It was that dreadful anticipation, the haunting fear, the gastly waiting. Slowly, surely, the hours, the minutes, the seconds ticked away. At a time such as this, one's life, no matter how long or short it has been, flashes across the horizon.

I lay there staring blandly at the gray, drab wall, fearing and awaiting the inevitable moment. Suddenly there is the soft sound of footsteps in the adjacent corridor. I was whisked upon a stretcher by uniformed attendants and was quickly wheeled into the operating room of City Hospital. In a few short moments my tonsils and I would part company forever.

The last thing I remember was the cone shaped receptacle placed across my face. Someone said, "Breathe deeply." I took deep draughts of ether and slowly things began to grow hazy and dim. I fought desperately to maintain consciousness until suddenly—oblivion. In the depth of a profound sleep a dream slowly began to unfold before me—a vision of my high school classmates, many of whom I had not seen for twenty years. It seemed that we were all attending the annual reunion of West Rutland High School. People were milling here and there. As I moved about in the lavish room I noticed Mr. Hinchey, candy-striped bow tie and all, visiting with other members of his teaching staff.

Soon I spotted, and immediately recognized, Stanley Pietryka, now field captain and star left hand pitcher of the Boston Red Sox. With him was his lovely wife, the former Priscilla Janas. Priscilla had only recently sold her interest in the Stagecoach Barn in Ira in order to be near Skip. They are residing at Boston's exclusive Sheraton-Plaza Hotel. Now that Skip is in the $50,000 a year class it's nothing but the best.

Next came Carol Grabowski and Leona Wierzbicki, co-owners of a Beauty Salon on New York's Avenue of Glamour. They are world-renowned hair stylists and their specialty is permanents and manicures for men.

As banquet time approached several of our classmates still hadn't arrived. Suddenly they seemed to descend upon the scene all at once. Heading the entourage and wearing dark glasses was Hollywood's most eligible male star, Johnny Broza. Broza had only recently finished his latest film success, "Girls Galore." He managed to return for the reunion because he is scheduled to make several New England appearances to plug his latest Vistavision hit. With him was his co-star, Beatrice Elari. The critics were in total agreement that Miss Elari's performance was "the greatest in twenty years." She is expected to tour Europe and South America to plug the picture. The two will return to the Coast next month to begin work in the sequel to the first success, "Ah, More Girls." The title of course, was suggested by Broza.

Chatting busily at a nearby table was Beverly Parkman, a member of the English department at the University of Vermont. She is conducting a series of seminars and symposiums throughout the area and is very much in demand on the banquet circuit. Her subject, "The Dubious Distinction of Teaching." I neglected to mention that Beverly is in private life, Mrs. Valentine Jakubowski. Val is owner of a flock of Tydol stations in Burlington and is reported to have grossed a half million last year.

Catherine McNamara is Manager of the First National Stores throughout New England. She was accompanied by Tom Harte, Highway Commissioner for the State of Texas. It seems as though Tom had been having a lot of trouble getting men to work for him. He told us that he had decided to resign the job and will start a little farm in Chippenhook, Vermont.

Edward Dunlap, now a famous news commentator for the NBC television network, arrived with Theresa Canavan, private secretary to Mr. Doo Little, owner of Ajax Manufacturing Co.

Next to follow was Martha Alexander now proprietor of New England Fruit and Vegetables Association. She had just returned from Greece after a long visit with relatives. She was now married to William Pecor, a twenty-year man in the U. S. Air Force. Bill had just been discharged and was planning to operate a small ice cream stand in his spare time. His delicacy is called "Willy's Delight."

John Crossman was now owner and operator of a large Cadillac franchise in New York State. It was a long climb, but Johnny finally graduated from that little 1936 Chevrolet to the shiny, sleek Cadillacs. When Johnny isn't too busy in his own profession, he is an ever helping husband. He assists his wife, the former Suzan Fadden with her reducing salon. It seems that Suzie has discovered a magic method to reduce. She plans to open Suzie's "Pound Peeler" parlor in the near future.

Next on the scene was Mary Mumford who had just won an Oscar for the most outstanding actress of 1976. Mary always wanted to be a top-notch actress and she finally got her wish. After receiving the honor, Mary announced she was retiring to take over her father's business, "Monuments and Memorials." She was accompanied by Mary Zygo, who had just returned from a trip abroad. Mary had become one of the leading fashion designers in the world. When Mary wasn't busy in the numerous fashion shops around the world, she spent her time with her poodle dogs.

Next to arrive was Mary Krysztofik, famous lecturer on "World Wide Problems." She was recently acclaimed the world's outstanding public speaker. Accompanying her was Barbara Boucher, Secretary to Mr. Louis Bromfield, noted author.

Next to enter was Jody Jakubowski who had just returned from Europe, where she had taken part in an elaborate fashion show in Paris. She is now a noted fashion designer for Saks Fifth Avenue.

Jimmy Yatsik had just returned from an African Safari deep in the jungles of South America. He was having quite a heated discussion with his wife, the former Nancy Chapman. The cause of all the trouble was over a beautiful python Jim had brought home from his big game hunt. Nancy was making a handsome fortune raising mink, and seemed to think that the python would interfere with her business, she ordered it removed from the premises at once.

Dorothy Turner, a retired nurse, now devoutly taking care of her nine sons, all future baseball and basketball players of America, took time off from her vocation to join us. She was accompanied by Mary Costello recently selected Miss Northeast because of her beauty, charm and personality.

Almost as quickly as I slipped into sleep, I awakened. It was such a pleasant dream, and despite a rasping sore throat, I felt very happy that I had been able to have that great reunion with my classmates.

Class Pastimes

SKIP PIETRYKA--always went by "Stagecoach" to Ira. We are convinced you weren't going rabbit hunting, SKIP.

MARY LOU ZYGO--traveled to Pittsford or to Stagecoach every Saturday night. Did you have fun square dancing, MARY?

JOHN BROZA--devoted much of his time practicing on his trumpet. Keep up the good work, JOHN. Who knows? Maybe you will be another Harry James.

MARY KRYSZTOFIK--the half pint of the class, tried every known remedy in order to grow. Nothing seemed to be effective though did it, MARY?

BILL PECOR--spent his time hunting anything that could be hunted. Did you get a lot of game? How about a tall story of the ones that got away?

CATHY McNAMARA--took her driver training lessons in a yellow Ford. Sears and Roebuck might sell you a license, CATHY.

VALENTINE JAKUBOWSKI--spent his spare time at Potter's Garage. We know you will make a good grease monkey, VAL.

EDDY DUNLAP--was often seen hitching a ride home after basketball practice. There were some cold days weren't there, ED?

PRISCILLA JANAS--tried every concoction for growing hair so she could revive her pony tail.

MARTHA ALEXANDER--"the class prankster," kept Miss Hinchey wondering what would happen from day to day. Maybe now, Miss Hinchey will have some peace and quiet.

MARY MUMFORD--kept busy reading books and tried to set a new record for tardiness. No doubt you will miss those mad last-second dashes to the home room.

SUZIE FADDEN and MARY LIB COSTELLO--spent the winter thinking of the summer they worked at the lake. Did you have that much fun working?

TOM HARTE--wore a path to Causeway Street. We all know the reason why, don't we?

BETTY PARKMAN--wrote long letters to Gene. Hope it pays off some day, BETTY.

DOROTHY TURNER--enjoyed telling jokes to the Senior girls. Have you heard any new ones lately, DOT?

LEONA WIERZBICKI--spent her time studying Shorthand. Maybe it will be worthwhile someday, LEONA.

BARBARA BOUCHER--tried to create new business for M. H. Fishman Co. during Christmas. How did you go about it, BARB?

JODY JAKUBOWSKI--enjoyed her leisure, listening to jazz records. Those long playing records were real cool weren't they, JODY?

BEATRICE ELARI--made use of her spare time having "gab sessions" in the press room. How much bologna did you throw, BEA?

JIMMY YATSIK--tried to keep track of his class ring. It seemed to disappear quite often didn't it, JIM?

THERESA CANAVAN--enjoyed skating, and if you happen to be at the rink that's where you will find her.

CAROL GRABOWSKI--was always giving someone a home permanent. CAROL, we were wondering if you ever "goofed" on any of them?

JOHN CROSSMAN--was always making major repairs to his jitny. It was actually a full time job, wasn't it?

NANCY CHAPMAN--spent her time hiking. We wonder what's "in them thar hills," NANCY?

Class Poem

Our high school days are over
We all have had our fun,
Problems have not stopped us
The victory has been won.

Though studies kept us busy
We found some time to play,
And though it wasn't easy
We did our best each day.

And now that it's all over
We start to realize,
That our four years at West Side High
Have been the best ones of our lives.

JOHN BROZA

Class Will

STAN PIETRYKA--wills his ability to play first base to Fran Zakzrewski. We hope you take care of first base as well as Skip has, Fran.

EDDIE DUNLAP--leaves his size thirteen football shoes to Billy Costello.

VALENTINE JAKUBOWSKI--bequeaths his seat in the senior home room to "Jokie" Salengo.

JOHN CROSSMAN--leaves his seat on the "Ira Limited" to Clara Jones. It's up to you now to keep things rolling, Clara.

TOM HARTE--gives his basketball shoes to his brother, Mike. Keeping it in the family, huh?

JIM YATSIK--wills his job as Mr. Hinchey's mailman to Squeekles Johnson.

BILLY PECOR--leaves his ability to warm a bench to Kubec Hyjek. Don't worry, Kubec, you'll have plenty of company.

JODY JAKUBOWSKI--wills her cheering ability to Muggie Pietryka. Jody wears size 6½ tennis shoes, Muggie.

BEA ELARI--wills her bass drum to Barbara Sankowski. We are confident that you'll do as well as Bea has.

BEVERLY PARKMAN--leaves her brother Bobby to the Sophomore girls. Don't fight over him, girls.

MARY KRYSZTOFIK--leaves her literary ability to Dolores Smyrski. We had a lot of news from Mary, Dodo.

DOROTHY TURNER--hands down her ability to tell good jokes to Jill Bianchi. Keep them laughing like Dorothy did, Jill.

SUZIE FADDEN--wills her favorite bottle of peroxide to Linda Keezer. Be careful, don't use as much as Suzie did, Linda.

MARTHA ALEXANDER--wills her ability to bother the teachers to George Gilligan. That's quite an order, isn't it, Butch?

MARY MUMFORD--wills her inability to be on time for school to her sister Margaret. It will take a lot of effort to better her record.

CAROL GRABOWSKI--bequeaths her job at Fishman's to Marilyn Johnson. Remember, Marilyn, measure the material correctly.

CATHERINE McNAMARA--gladly gives her freckles to whoever wants them.

BARBARA BOUCHER--wills her aptitude in reading shorthand to Joan McDevitt. Let's see if you can do as well as Barbara.

NANCY CHAPMAN--bequesths her ability to be quiet to Freddie Boudreau. Remember, Fred, silence is a virtue.

PRISCILLA JANAS--reserves her parking place to brother George. Remember now, no scraped fenders.

MARY LOU ZYGO--donates her books to her brother, Johnny. He ought to be able to carry them all.

LEONA WIERZBICKI--wills her temper to Albert Bania. Try and control it as well as Leona, Al.

MARY LIB COSTELLO--gives her flashy sox to Peggy Reil.

THERESA CANAVAN--hands down her ability to chew gum to Peggy Burke. Somebody has to keep the tradition going.

JOHN BROZA--leaves all his "women" to Joe Mackerney. Take good care of them, Joe.

THE SENIOR GIRLS--will the dusting cloth in the home room to the Juniors.

Class Presentations

MARTHA ALEXANDER--A book of tricks to remind you of those little pranks you played on Miss Hinchey. We hope you'll find some new ideas.

BARBARA BOUCHER--A course in speedwriting. Barb has already mastered West Side's Shorthand course.

JOHN BROZA--An annual report of the female Freshman enrollment at W.R.H.S. Young girls always appealed to you, didn't they?

THERESA CANAVAN--A comb, so you can keep your hair looking trim wherever you are.

MARY COSTELLO--An alarm clock. Miss Hinchey was getting writer's cramp from marking X's in the "late column."

EDDIE DUNLAP--A week's vacation to Disneyland. Eddie wowed us at parties with his imitations of Donald Duck.

BEATRICE ELARI--A certificate giving you life-time privileges to use the band's bass drum, whenever you are in town.

SUSAN FADDEN--A season's pass to the Stagecoach Barn. Dancing is Sue's favorite pastime.

CAROL GRABOWSKI--A picture of Mike. It seemed a fad with the Seniors to "rob the cradle" this year.

JODY JAKUBOWSKI--A bottle of peroxide, so you won't be called, "The girl with the long blond hair, and short black roots."

VAL JAKUBOWSKI--A permanent job with Potter's Garage. Val was the master mechanic over all the Senior boys.

STAN PIETRYKA--A contract replacing Ted Williams when he retires. They'll have to move that right field wall back a bit, when you start slugging them, Skip.

TOM HARTE--A St. Christopher medal for your car. Remember, Tom, even St. Chris leaves you after 60 miles per hour.

JOHN CROSSMAN--A flashlight, to help you on your coon-hunting expeditions in the wilds of Chippenhook.

BILL PECOR--A football cleat. Bill was a steady and dependable performer for the West Rutland grid squad this year.

PRISCILLA JANAS--A miniature basketball, to remind you of Skip, and all the fun you had as a cheerleader for West Side.

JAMES YATSIK--A three-day reservation at the Arlington Hotel. You know what we mean, don't you, Yardy?

DOROTHY TURNER--A joke book so you can live up to your reputation as "the one with the quips."

CATHY McNAMARA--A grocery list, to remind you of that certain someone who works at the First National.

MARY MUMFORD--A sewing machine. Now you can make your own clothes, and be the best dressed girl on campus.

BEVERLY PARKMAN--A pamphlet entitled "Why back-seat drivers are a hazard to safety."

MARY LOU ZYGO--A date book. Now you can keep track of all your Rutland boy friends.

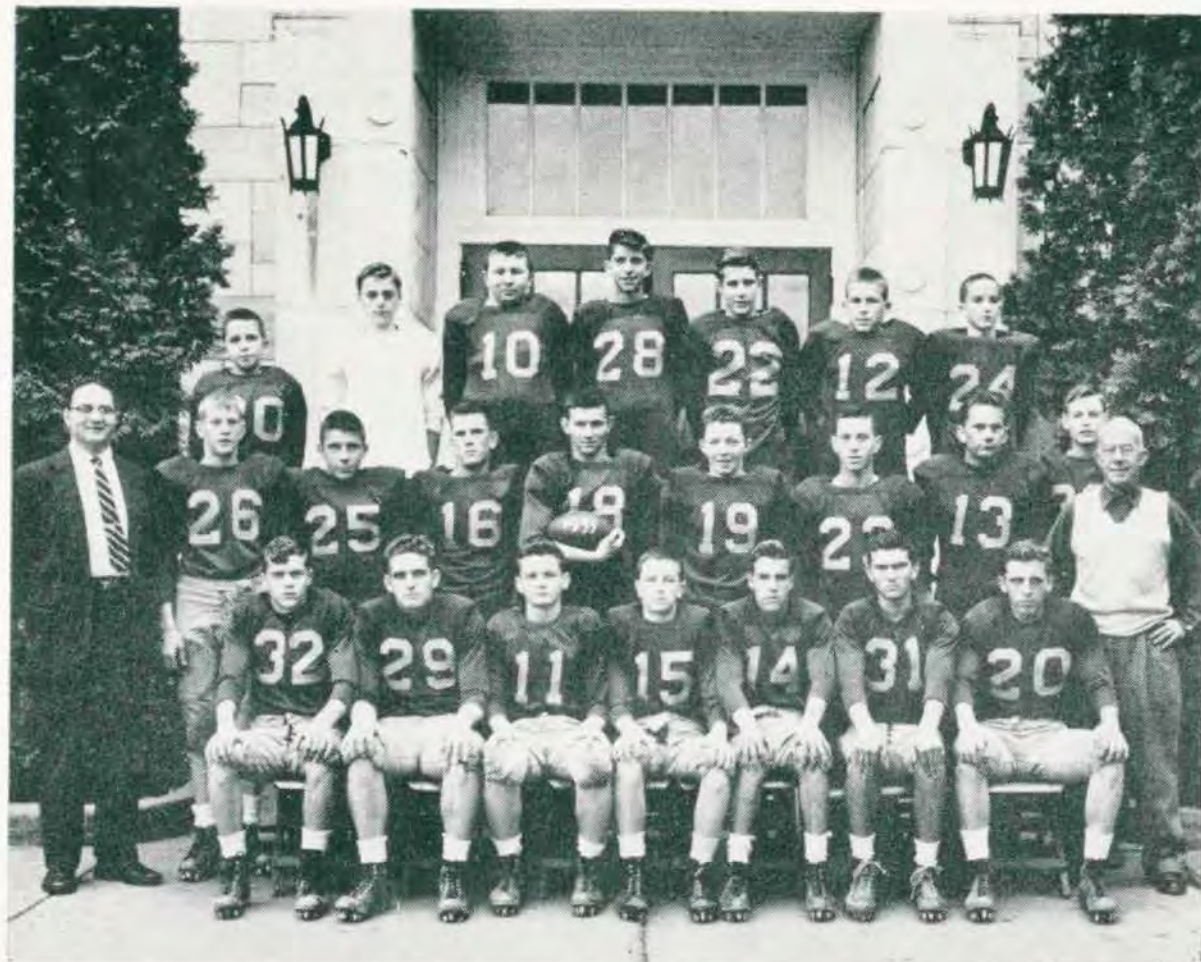

LEONA WIERZBICKI--A writing pad, so you can jot down all those quaint expressions you were always so fond of.

NANCY CHAPMAN--A course titled "Algebra in 10 Easy Lessons." We hope you may even like the subject when you complete it, Nancy.

MARY KRYSZTOFIK--A box of colored pencils. Now you can be of assistance to Buz when his pencils wear down.

Varsity Football

First row: Albert Bania, Michael Harte, William Huttenlock, Joseph Mackerney, Jacob Hyjek, William Ballard and Thomas Harte.
 Second row: Louis Cavaliere, assistant coach; Paul Johnson, John Sabotka, James Yatsik, Stanley Pietryka, Edward Dunlap, Henry Daley, William Pecor, William Hults and Francis N. Hinchey, coach.
 Third row: George Gilligan, George Janas, William Parker, Russell Burney, William Ryan, John Franck and William Costello.

Late in August, five seniors and several underclassmen displayed their talents before the watchful eye of Coach Frank Hinchey, as practice got under way for the 1955 football season. Little did the team realize that it was to experience the most dismal season in West Rutland football history.

On September 24, the Horde opened its season with a 12-7 loss to Woodstock at Hinchey Field. The Wasps took a 6-0 lead early in the first canto and neither team did any further scoring until after the intermission. West Side came back in the third period. Skip Pietryka took a pass from Jim Yatsik and romped over the goal line for the first West Rutland tally. Johnny Sabotka plunged over for the extra point, and the Hincheymen led, 7-6. With 20 seconds to go, the Wasps scored again for the final and winning touchdown.

In the second game the West Siders dropped a 20-0 decision to Burr & Burton at Manchester. Injuries plagued the Hordemen as Stan Pietryka and Jim Yatsik were forced to the sidelines early in the tilt. As a result the Horde lost much of its scoring power and the Bulldogs had little trouble handing West Rutland their second straight setback.

West Side's third loss came at the hands of the Fair Haven Slaters. The Kehoemen had a heavy, well-balanced club which scored time and again, as Coach Hinchey's eager but small Hordemen put up a hapless defense and a game, but weak offense.

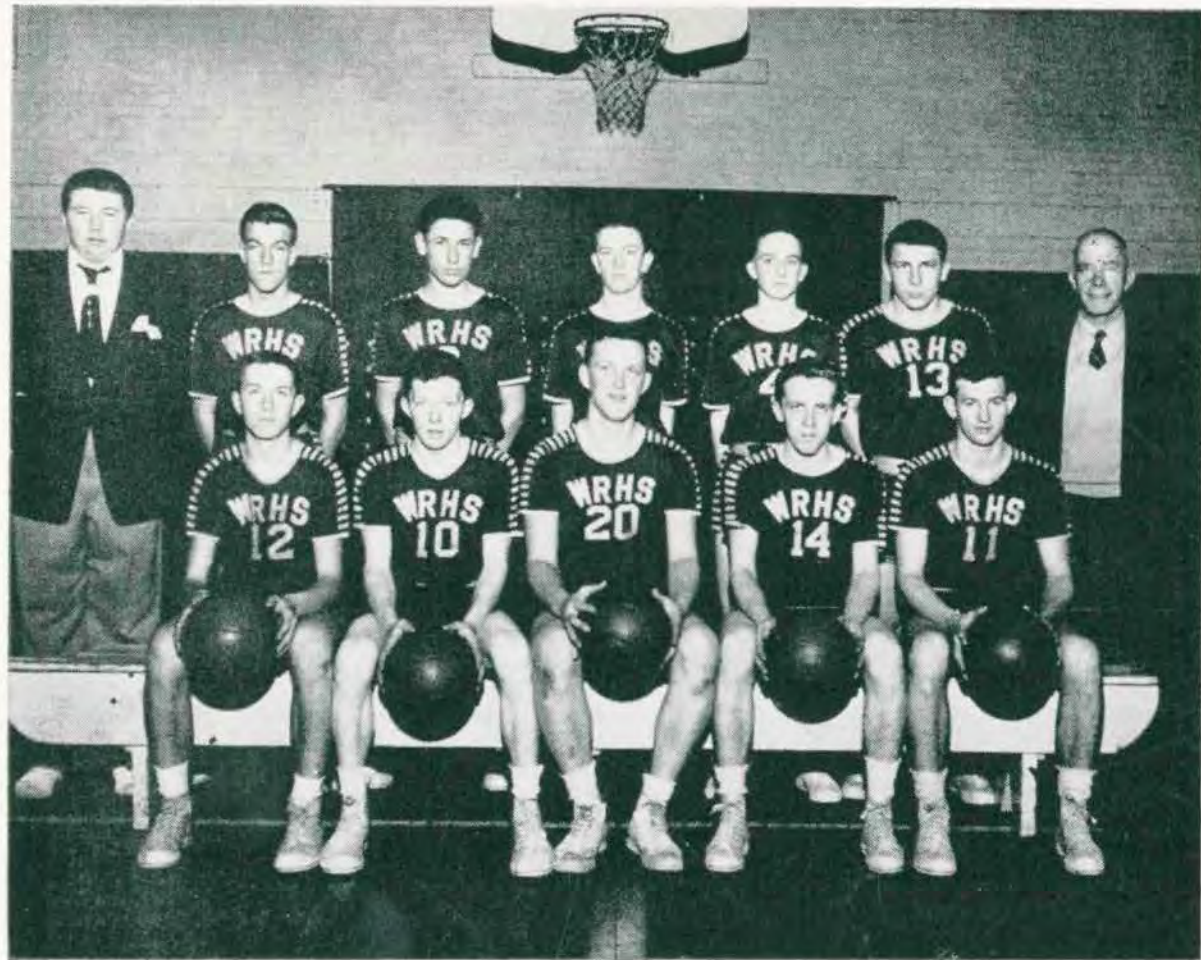

Hinchey Field was the site of the Green and Gold's last home game as the Poultney Blue Devils ran all over the West Side contingent, 26-7. It was a hard fought defensive contest. West Rutland managed to score its only touchdown in the fourth period when Al Bania recovered a Blue Devil fumble on the latter's 45 yard line. A series of downs brought the ball to the West Rutland 25. Ed Dunlap took a hand-off and charged over the goal and Dick Fredette added the extra point.

The Hincheymen dropped their fifth and final game against the Middlebury Tigers, 35-0. The Tigers' speedy backs ran roughshod over the Green and Gold defense throughout the contest. The only West Rutland threat came in the last stanza, as Ed Dunlap piloted a march downfield with reverses and end runs. The West Side attack was throttled deep in Tiger territory, and thus ended any hope of a Gold score. Ed Dunlap, Bill Pecor, and Tom Harte, seniors, played their final game for West Rutland.

The Horde settled for last place in the MVL with a record of five losses. It was the only winless season in W.R.H.S. grid history.

Varsity Basketball

First row: Francis Zakrzewski, Edward Dunlap, John Broza, Thomas Harte, Stanley Pietryka.
 Second row: Edward Parker, manager; Jacob Hyjek, Joseph Salengo, Joseph Mackerney, William Costello, John Sabotka, Francis N. Hinchey, coach.

West Rutland failed for the second year to gain entry to the Southern Vermont Tournament. Until 1952, West Rutland had won seven out of eight Class "B" Championships in the State.

The Golden Horde started the season shakily, losing their first four games. The squad then came back strong to win the next five successive contests.

The Hincheymen opened the Southern Vermont League at home, losing to Bellows Falls, 63-43. Fran Zakrzewski scored 13 points for the losing cause.

The Westsiders then lost a thriller to their arch rival, Mount St. Joseph, by the score of 56-58. Mike Harte and Skip Pietryka scored 14 and 16 points, respectively to pace the locals.

West Rutland then lost their next three games to Rutland, Brattleboro, and Springfield.

The Horde finally came through against Bennington in a fast, close game, 64-63 to crack the win column in the league. Tom Harte had 18 tallies and Fran Zakrzewski, 12, to spearhead the triumph.

West Side went into another slump, losing to Windsor, M.S.J. and Brattleboro. The game in Brattleboro was one of the best played games all year, by the Hincheymen but fell short of victory, 49-37.

West Rutland lost their next five games, and ended the SVL at Bellows Falls, a game in which the Horde had the Terriers on the run. At the end of the third quarter, West Side trailed Bellows Falls by 17 points, but narrowed the gap to 61-56 at the final whistle. John Broza and Skip Pietryka scored 18 and 22 points for the losing cause and West Rutland ended the SVL season with one victory and 13 losses.

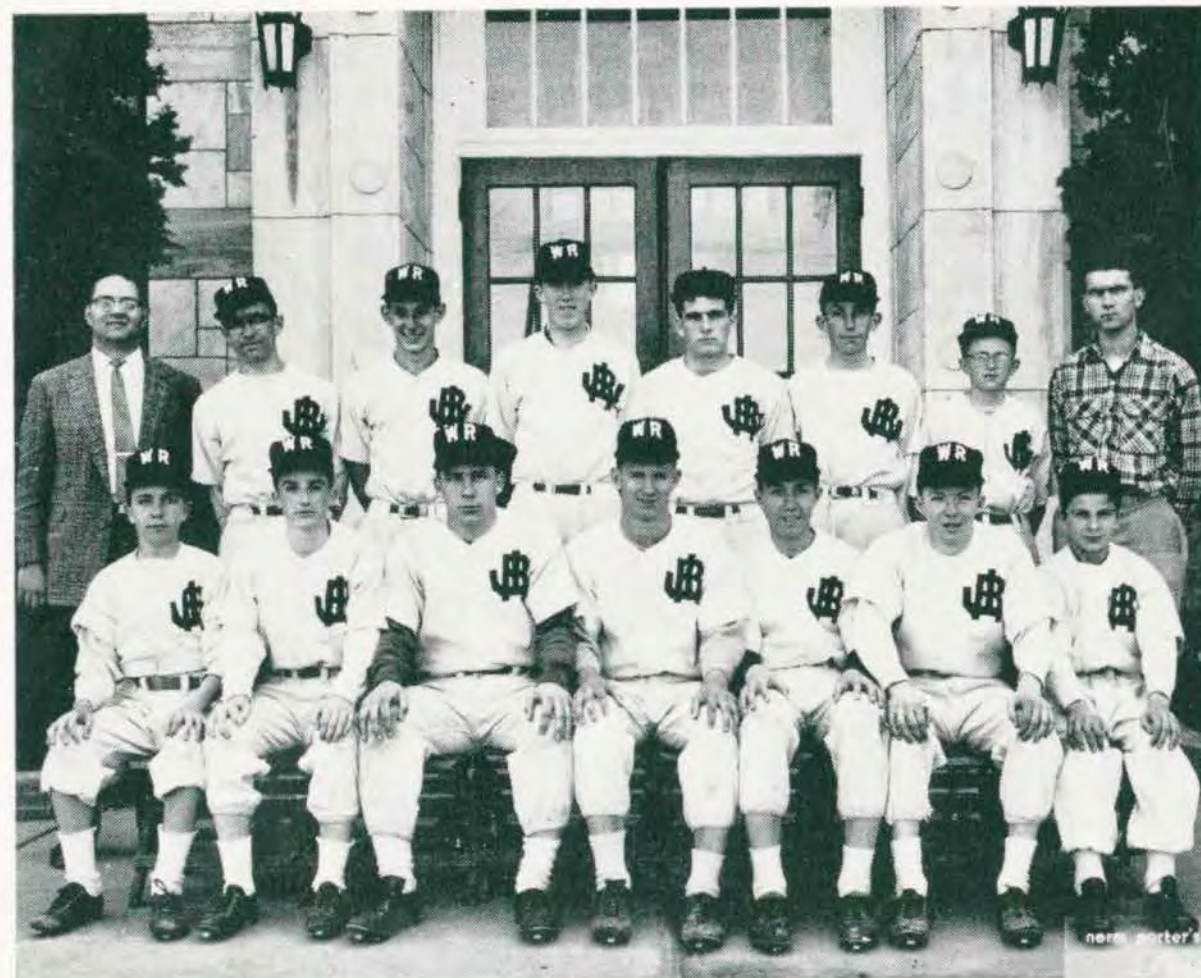

A post-season game to dedicate the new electric scoreboard clock between Pittsford and West Rutland saw the Panthers pull out a 72-67 over-time victory over the luckless Hincheymen. Fran Zakrzewski topped the W.R.H.S. cagers with a total of 21 points.

IN AN EFFORT TO PROVIDE OUR
 WEST RUTLAND READERS
 WITH BETTER NEWS COVERAGE

The Rutland Herald

now has full time coverage of the town by its local news staff

Members of the local news staff will make regular visits to West Rutland Town Hall offices just as they do within the city.

We will also, naturally, continue to print news of the various clubs and societies just as we do within the city and club officers are invited to call the HERALD News Department, PR 5-5511, at any time of the day or night with their reports.

Personal Mentions also may be telephoned to the HERALD at any time.

Your Cooperation is invited by THE RUTLAND HERALD
